

Non Regular Rep Remuneration

A non-regular employee FPSE representative who is himself/herself a non-regular employee is entitled to remuneration of his/her time to participate in and work on FSA business. Remuneration will be on an hourly basis for time spent on attending FSA meetings, conferences and FSA business. The remuneration will be limited to a maximum of 125 hours paid at the prevailing sessional hourly salary scale. However, if the non-regular employee FPSE representative has need to spend more time, they can put a request in writing to the finance & administration committee for payment of hours above the 125 hours limit. Placement on the salary scale will be determined by the finance & administration committee. It will be the responsibility of the non-regular employee FPSE representative to submit a timesheet to the president, secretary-treasurer, or other delegated executive member assigned by the finance & administration committee.

Approved by the FSA executive committee – April 24, 2014